ENEMY RETREAT IN THE SOUTH IS QUICKENING

By the Associated Press
London, Nov. 2.—(AP)—The Germans asserted today that Russian forces had landed in the eastern Crimea north and south of Kerch. Moscow dispatches declared other Red troops were compressing the Nazis into the peninsular death trap with a fresh advance from the sealed northern entrance.

"The Germans immediately started a counter-attack which annihilated the main part of the Bolsheviks who had landed and compressed the remainder of a narrow space immediately near the coast," a DNB dispatch broadcast by Berlin said of the Kerch landings.

VITAL RIDGE OCCUPIED BY FIFTH ARMY

Two Lofty Anchors of Enemy Line in Italy Taken By Allies Battling Against Fierce Opposition

LA SPECIA IS BLASTED

By EDWARD KENNEDY
Allied Headquarters, Algiers, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Allied Fifth Army troops battling against fierce enemy opposition have pushed forward to occupy large parts of the Maseo Ridge and Maseo Mountain, two lofty anchors of the German line in Italy, headquarters to announced.

The gains punched to within artillery range of the communications center of Venafro, and the Garigliano river 18 miles above the Volturno river's mouth.

Along the Mediterranean coastal area, British elements on Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark's army advanced four miles, seizing the town of Casanova.

American troops farther inland won a good part of Maseo, which dominates the upper Volturno valley.

The Eighth Army on the Adriatic side maintained steady pressure against the Germans, and gained some ground at the southern end of its front.

On the aerial front, Allied warplanes fanned out in a broad arc (Turn to Page Seven)

Prison Inmates On A Hunger Strike

Lewisburg, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Tube feeding of five prisoners at the federal penitentiary continued today, with prison officials repeating that the inmates' hunger strike against mail inspection regulations could not last much longer.

The hunger strikers, all of whom were given prison sentences following their refusal to serve in the armed forces because of conscientious scruples, refused food as a protest against inspection of inmates' mail. The strike began a month ago.

Warden W. H. Hiatt said the five men are being fed through tubes in the prison hospital and "don't resist at all." He declined to discuss the case further or to name the strikers, but agreed with a justice department announcement in Washington which said the mail inspection rule would not be changed.

"Dream of Ages Nearer To Fruition" Secretary Hull States

Chungking, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Foreign Secretaries Hull, Eden and Molotov "well may prove to be the instruments for bringing the dream of the ages nearer to fruition," Chinese Foreign Minister T. V. Song declared today in welcoming the Moscow four power declaration.

"China enthusiastically welcomes the joint declaration of the four principal united nations, which not only provides for common action during the war but also evinces their firm determination to insure collective security thereafter," Song's statement read.

Allied Headquarters, Algiers, Nov. 2.—(AP)—The reaction of most American soldiers in this theater to the Moscow announcement was shrugged shoulders.

Preoccupied by immediate problems of daily army life, they are not much interested in international affairs.

Algiers, Nov. 2.—(AP)—The Moscow four power announcements were greeted with mingled feelings of elation and disappointment by persons close to the French committee of National Liberation. The French expressed dissatisfaction that they were not included on the commission which will settle general European problems. They were included only on the Mediterranean commission which is dealing with settlement of the Italian question.

Report of Moscow Agreement Believed Greatest Blow of German Hopes for Success

By JAMES D. WHITE
Washington, Nov. 2.—(AP)—The sweeping Moscow agreement was viewed here today as the greatest single blow to German hopes of victory that the war has produced.

Unequivocal Allied unity—in war and after the war—now confronts a beleaguered Nazi regime which recently has placed all its chips on prolonging the conflict by dividing the Allies against themselves.

The reply from Moscow seems to be clear. There is no division, and it is the sense of the four-power conference that there shall be none.

Secretary of State Hull, Foreign Minister Anthony Eden, and Foreign Commissar Vyacheslav Molotov, said the joint communiqué, had military experts along who discussed definite operations "already decided upon and now being prepared." To create a basis for the closest military cooperation in the future among Britain, Russia and the United States.

The announcement, made simultaneously in Moscow, London and Washington, apparently burst upon the Nazis before they could prepare ready-made propaganda counterblasts.

In a silence which appeared paralytic, the Nazi radio said nothing of the momentous Moscow decision for several hours except to quote straight from British broadcasts.

While the conference is regarded as likely to hasten the end of the war by confronting the Germans with a wall of Allied unity and by stirring up rebellion against the Nazis all over Europe, the four-power joint declaration in which China joined is considered here to be the historic milestone for which the meeting will be remembered the longest.

The four powers, China, Russia, Britain and America, recognize the necessity of establishing at the earliest practicable date a general international organization, based on the principle of the sovereign equality of all peace loving states, and open to membership by all such states, large and small, for the maintenance of international peace and security.

Philadelphia, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Thousands of Philadelphia war workers were late for their jobs today as a labor dispute slowed bus and trolley transportation in two heavily populated sections.

Philadelphia transportation Company officials said 76 trolley operators and 48 bus drivers refused to work after they were ordered to remove CIO badges from their uniforms.

Spokesmen for Local 234, Transport Workers Union, said no strike had been called and termed the situation "a lockout."

Buses and trolleys which did operate were jammed to capacity and hundreds of persons were left standing on street corners as the crowded vehicles whizzed by, unable to take on more riders.

More than one-third of the lines in West Philadelphia and about 40 per cent of the bus routes serving Bendix Aviation Corp., Budd Manufacturing Company, U. S. Signal Corps Depot and Midvale Steel Company in the northeast were affected when the trouble began.

Supervisors and instructors were assigned to the operating staffs, however, and the jam was slightly eased.

Greensburg, Nov. 2.—(AP)—The bodies of two of the four navy fliers who lost their lives in a plane crash 15 miles west of Greensburg Saturday were so badly burned it has been impossible so far to positively identify them.

The ship was in charge of Lieut. Earl C. Calkins of Monroe, Iowa, and carried Marine Capt. E. J. Wood, Evanston, Ill., and Flying Cadets Robert A. Gurley, Bunker Hill, Ind., and Thomas Greene, Evansville, Wis.

INVASION TO CRUSH JAPAN IN SOLOMONS

Troops of Admiral Halsey Using Landing Barges, Occupy Garrison of Bougainville

AIRFIELDS ARE BOMBED

Allied Headquarters in the Southwest Pacific, Nov. 2.—(AP)—The master stroke to crush Japan in all the Solomons, expose Rabaul to frontal assault and ultimately burst open the sea lanes to the Philippines was developed today by powerful American invasion forces of Bougainville.

Troops of Adm. William F. Halsey leaped from landing barges, Monday at dawn 45 miles up the west coast of that heavily garrisoned enemy base. Under naval and air cover, they captured Empress Augusta Bay against ground opposition and imperilled by-passed Japanese troops and air fields on the south side of that 3,400 square mile island.

Venturing nearer Rabaul than an Allied naval force ever had approached before, cruisers had moved to the extreme northern end of Bougainville and bombarded the Buka airfield prior to the invasion, a spokesman at Halsey's headquarters disclosed. Other naval forces escorting the landing troops shelled Empress Augusta for 45 minutes before the dawn operations.

Yet another task force shelled bivouac areas in the Shortlands while swarms of Allied bombers roamed on missions of destruction over Bougainville airfields.

The move completely fooled the Japanese army. The enemy's maul-ed Solomons airforce, with scarce any useable fields, was unable to interfere. The Japanese navy was defied by Gen. Douglas MacArthur to put in its appearance and risk disaster under the bomb-sights of "all my heavy bombers."

Rift Between Lewis and CIO Is Widening

Philadelphia, Nov. 2.—(AP)—The rift between the Congress of Industrial Organizations and John L. Lewis and his United Mine Workers appeared wider than ever today as the CIO's sixth annual convention went into its second day.

The 600 delegates heard their president, Philip Murray, declare during a debate on the opening day program, "I don't know if Lewis and his UMW will go back to the American Federation of Labor or not. And I don't care. But I can say this: Since they have left this organization, there has been more unity than ever before."

Earlier, the convention had adopted unanimously a reaffirmation of its no-strike pledge, which concluded with these words:

"Any leader of organized labor who deliberately flouts this obligation and any employer who seeks to provoke or exploit labor is playing into the hands of the enemies of our nation."

Murray spoke extemporaneously during a discussion of the CIO's organization program.

Food Subsidies Will Be Tested

Washington, Nov. 2.—(AP)—President Roosevelt's appeal to congress for authority to pay food subsidies to keep retail prices down faces a major test in the senate this week.

The agriculture committee, whose membership has been predominantly hostile to the subsidy principle, arranged a hearing for Thursday to consider a bill which would knock out the present dairy feed subsidy to milk producers. It would require instead that the Office of Price Administration immediately boost milk prices 45 cents per hundred pounds, the equivalent of one cent a quart.

In addition, the bill would require the OPA within 90 days to fix milk prices on a regional basis at a level high enough to offset increased production costs. Senators Eastland (D-Miss) and McClellan (D-Ark) have said increases of as high as three cents a quart would be needed in some sections.

State Voters Troop To Polls In Off-Year Election Which Attracts National Interest

Philadelphia, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Light voting was reported in nearly all precincts in Pennsylvania today as the polls opened for the commonwealth's off-year general election, watched throughout the nation for possible hints of 1944 political trends.

Workers of both Democratic and Republican parties renewed their drives to get citizens to the ballot booths.

Except in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, however, local elections aroused little interest. The state's metropolis produced the outstanding fight—the mayoralty campaign between Acting Mayor Bernard Samuel, Republican, and former Ambassador William C. Bullitt, Democrat.

After a knock-down, drag-out battle, the two aspirants made their final appeals to the electorate last night in comparatively moderate language.

Bullitt, seeking to upset a Republican regime that has lasted 62 years old a radio audience, "we need in our city a spiritual conversion, a second flowering of the ideals which made our city great; a second flowering of the fellowship of Franklin, who walked with kings and artisans and treated them alike. We need to make our science, machinery and trade, our labor with hand and brain, serve our city for the common good of all."

Samuel expressed confidence in a Republican victory. "I have felt that way all along, since the day I became a candidate for a full term as mayor," he said in a broadcast. "It was not the confidence of egotism but a humble confidence that the citizens of Philadelphia believe in the Lambertson-Samuel administration."

The Pittsburgh contest was highlighted by a Republican drive to win a majority of the Allegheny county commission, where the Democrats have had the edge for eight years. A great amount of ticket splitting was indicated.

Throughout the state, the size of the vote was expected to have a great deal to do with determining results. And with hundreds of thousands of young men away in the armed services, the women's vote loomed as another decisive factor.

There was only one state-wide contest—that for Judge of Superior Court, between Judge Claude T. Reno, who seeks a full 10-year term, and Judge Curtis Box, of Philadelphia common pleas court, Democrat.

Tax Framers Rounding Out Revenue Bill

Washington, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Unprecedented controls over government spending caught the eye of congressional tax framers today as they continued their struggles to make ends meet in the treasury.

After chopping down the administration's request for new revenue from $10,500,000,000 to a tentative $2,182,000,000, the house ways and means committee took up a proposal by Rep. Disney (D-Ohio) that a congressional budget committee be created to act as watchdog on federal spending.

However, the proposal—which is supported by both Democrats and Republicans—probably will meet stiff opposition. Chairman Cannon (D-Mo), of the house appropriations committee, said such a plan had been suggested many times and that it would be impractical.

In its almost last-minute moves, the ways and means committee rounded out its new revenue bill with a boost in the out-of-town letter rate from three to four cents, raised the in-town rate from two to three cents and the airmail rate from six to eight cents.

NATION WAITS DECISION OF UNION CHIEFS

Two-Hundred-Man Policy Committee Meets Late Today To Formulate Plans

LEWIS STILL SILENT

Washington, Nov. 2.—(AP)—For the second time this year, the government took over operation of the nation's strike-paralyzed coal mines today and the seizure put United Mine Workers' Union leadership in this position:

1—Order the strikers to dig coal again, immediately, or—
2—Sit tight and face the possibility of severe penalties under the war disputes act which outlines punishment for anyone who encourages a strike against a government-operated industry in wartime.

The UMW's 200-man policy committee meets late today to make its choice. A back-to-work order was considered highly possible.

UMW president John L. Lewis, by delaying action for one day on a coal walkout when President Roosevelt ordered the seizing of the mines.

President Roosevelt said:

"Because I appreciate the desire of the miners to work under a contract, I have authorized the Secretary of the Interior to enter into collective bargaining contracts with representatives of the miners to govern the terms and conditions of employment during the period of government operation. Such contracts will be made in accordance with the recent opinion of the National War Labor Board and will be subject to its approval in accordance with the provision of the War Labor Disputes Act."

This satisfied, at least in part, the demands of Secretary Ickes that the president allow him broader authority to deal with the mine but he may not legally encourage or coerce anyone to join him.

The operators recognize that any agreement worked out between Lewis and Ickes will be the agreement they will have to accept if they want their mines back during the war.

The president had warned he would take "decisive action to see that coal is mined" but agreed to wait until after the miners' policy meeting yesterday. When the policy committee deferred conclusive action, the White House moved swiftly. The executive order and the president's statement were announced two hours and 15 minutes after the policy meeting ended.

The seizure placed in effect the penalties of the labor disputes act. These range up to a year's imprisonment and $5,000 fine for any person guilty of encouraging an interruption of production. An individual worker, however, has the right to remain away from work but he may not legally encourage or coerce anyone to join him.

Moreover, miners might be barred from accepting other jobs under tightening manpower controls. Reaction in the field to the president's latest move was not encouraging. Both Pennsylvania and Ohio reported a determination among the miners to stay out until a contract is signed.

BULLETINS

Washington, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Hit by a German bomb off Salerno, the light cruiser Savannah was damaged and some members of her crew were killed and wounded, the navy said today.

Chungking, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Maj. Gen. Claire L. Chennault's far striking airmen again have gone to the support of Chinese forces, this time in central China, where they bombed a Japanese motor park and barracks at Shayang, a town on the Han river, 100 miles west of Hankow, Lt. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell's headquarters disclosed today.

Denver, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Ignoring a blunt warning from Office of Price Administration officials, the Denver city council last night passed a two-cent per quart excise tax on fluid milk—to give producers higher prices and avert a threatened milk shortage.

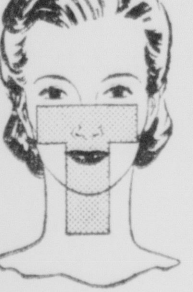

Jacksonville, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Major John T. Alsop today accepted a challenge by Mayor Harry P. Cian of Tacoma, Wash., and waged his pants that Jacksonville citizens can match the scrap drive record set by Tacoma citizens.

Council Grinds Grist In Record Time of 49 Minutes

Council met last evening, the gavel dropping at 7:40 after a quorum had finally been secured by the calling of various members by telephone and adjourned at 8:29. It was somewhat of a record as a full grist of business was transacted. In the absence of President Forest Waite, selection of Harold Hampson as president pro tem was made.

The finance committee reported $127,736.70 in the general fund; $30,958.34 in the sinking fund and $693.96 in the park fund. Bills amounting to $14,600.17 were ordered paid when properly approved.

The street committee reported that repairs to Fourth avenue by the New York Central and Pennsylvania railroads were being made as requested by the borough.

Eighty-nine calls were responded to by the police last month with $1,465 in stolen goods recovered. Twenty-five arrests were made with $59.25 in fines assessed. Burgess Steber reported collecting $12 in license fees. The parking meters returned the city the sum of $792.42 from September 29 to October 27, and for the same period in 1942 the sum of $975.22 was returned.

Sixteen fire calls with a loss of $109 was reported by the fire committee. The purchase of a new alarm system, to be installed in the station of Engine Company No. 3, was ordered at a cost of $225. New mattresses, springs, beds, ect., for the station were also ordered at a cost of not over $500.

Collections from the city scales amounted to $32.25 for past month. Harold Hampson and Mrs. M. L. Daugherty were chosen to represent the city at a convention of municipal officers to be held at the Penn Harris Hotel in Harrisburg, November 19 and 20.

Discussion of the police pension fund was indulged in, but no action was taken. The sum of $4036.17 was ordered paid to the Firemen's Relief Association from the foreign fire insurance companies tax to the state.

Report was made that the equipment of the street department is in need of repairs and the sum of $200 was appropriated for that purpose.

BOYS NOT IMPLICATED

Two of the boys whose names appeared in last evening's Times-Mirror in connection with police picking up several lads charged with soaping windows about town were not implicated in the affair in any way. They were Herman Ubeck and Danny Lord. Investigation by the police has wholly exonerated these two lads of any connection with the matter.

HAIL RATTLED DOWN

Warren had a hail storm of short duration last evening. It rattled down in good shape and west of the city the fall was heavy. Carl Patchen, weather prognosticator de luxe, cites the old adage, "thunder in the fall no winter at all." And inasmuch as thunder accompanied the hail there is hope that Patchen may be correct.

PRIZES AWARDED

War Bond winners at the North Warren Civic Club's annual Halloween Carnival were: $500, John Flick; $100, R. F. Gilmore and Mrs. Frank Gerardi; $50, Lauren M. Maurer and William Lightner, Jr., of North Warren, and Jack Abler; $25, Lee Zelders and Max Schwanke. The cedar chest awarded during the carnival became the property of Miss Margaret Nesmith.

WILL WINTER FISH

Warren anglers who had planned on a program of trout planting in the county streams have been notified that due to the low water in the streams due to the prolonged drought no fish will be furnished this fall. The Corry hatchery has sent out word that they will winter the fish now at the hatchery and do the planting next spring. 175,000 brown and rainbow trout, all of legal size, will be held along with 300,000 smaller brown and rainbows throughout the winter.

CARS COLLIDED

At Fourth and Market streets last evening two automobiles crashed with damage of about $200 done to both cars. None of the occupants were injured. The crash came when Beecher Shaw, of Tidoute R. D. 1, pulled through the stop sign and his car was hit by one driven by Ralph C. Murray, Pama, Texas. Shaw was on his way to the court house when the accident happened and stated he thought he was on Liberty street where there is no stop sign. He assumed all liability for the accident.

The meeting will be called to order at eight o'clock P. M. at the Carver House. Anyone wishing to attend this meeting may do so without any reservation. There is no admission.

AQUATICS COURSE

A new military aquatics course will be started by Red Cross instructors at the YMCA at eight o'clock Wednesday evening. Also of interest to many will be the junior and senior life saving courses to start at the same place at eight o'clock Friday night. Those in charge have been surprised and somewhat disappointed in the lack of interest in military swimming, despite the fact that some recent statistics released by the War Department indicate that in the first year of this war almost half of the fatalities were caused by drowning.

WILL MOVE SOON

With practically all construction of the new fire station in the Fourth ward completed firemen of Engine Company No. 3 are preparing to move into the station about November 15. The structure has been built by the city and the entire cost, including a number of changes, all for the better, will be less than the lowest bid received from any contractor. Considerable new furniture will be installed in the station and it should be one of the most comfortable and well arranged stations in the city. At the present time there is some discussion relative to the erection of a similar station on the East Side near Irvine street. However, this will probably not be done until after the war.

Today is Election Day. In case you plan to do any banking, forget it. All three Warren banks are closed until tomorrow (Wednesday) morning in observance of the day.

If you are dry and plan a sip of beer or mixed drinks, don't go to any tap rooms in the county as there will be no dispensing of the beverage until one hour after the polls close today, in other words, 9 p. m. Also the State Liquor store will be closed all day.

If you didn't get any bills yesterday, the first of the month, you surely will get them today as the mail man will be on the job as election day only means another day's work. The general delivery window at the post office will also be opened.

Sailor Sought For Abduction of Young Girl

Times Square and overheard them planning what they would do when they reached Norfolk, Va.

Miss Moore was walking with a girl companion when the sailors spoke to them, according to police who said the other girl slapped the face of one man who held her arm and announced: "I'm going home."

The Moore girl walked on with the men, police added.

One of the sailors, Robert H. Hendry, who said he recognized the girl from newspaper photographs, voluntarily went to police last night and said he had left her with his friends in the park.

Police reported that an inquiry at the navy yard disclosed that Hendry's shipmate had not reported back to his ship and was listed as absent without leave.

Membership Drive Planned By Y. M. C. A.

W. Howard Alexander, president of the Young Men's Christian Association, announced today the plans for the annual "Call to Membership" of the association as they have been developed at this point.

At a recent meeting of the association's directors, Mr. Alexander was elected general chairman of this year's membership effort, and since military terminology is to be used his title will be "Chief of Staff." The dates set for the solicitation of members are Nov.
16 to 22 inclusive.

As "commanders" of three "fighting forces"—Army navy and Marines—Mr. Alexander has appointed N. D. Paterson, William E. Yeager and Maurice R. Emery, and these three leaders are now busy at the task of lining up a total of twelve company commanders. Thursday of this week at 5 o'clock are the day and hour set for the first meeting of campaign officers.

Rev. Rinard To Speak Before Kiwanis Club

Speaker at this week's session of Kiwanis Club, to be held Wednesday noon at the Carver Hotel, will be Dr. H. A. Rinard, pastor of the First Lutheran church and retired colonel of the U. S. Army Air Forces.

Dr. Rinard saw service overseas as a chaplain in World War I and his talk to Kiwanians is featured as a most timely address. Since the club is sponsoring publication of "The Home Front News" for mailing to all local members of the armed forces, its membership is much interested in learning all possible information concerning soldiers and wartime conditions in the armed forces and is looking forward with keen interest to hearing this retired officer.

BOMBERS AREN'T CAMELS

It's a long time between drinks for the camel. But a heavy bomber plane constantly gulps gasoline—200 gallons an hour at cruising speed.

And it's partly because of the bomber's thirst that the photograph shows U. S. gasoline for U. S. forces moving down a road in India by truck and camel. Petroleum is so important to our armies that every kind of conveyance is used to get it to them.

Two-thirds of the tonnage consumed by our expeditionary forces is petroleum.

The bomber is just one of many, many reasons for that huge consumption. Yet the gasoline it uses in 60 minutes is as much as the average motorist used in five months before the war.

Too, it's 100-octane gasoline the U. S.

petroleum industry is supplying to United Nations air forces in record quantity. Credit for steadily driving Germans and Japs from the skies goes first to our crews, second to our planes. But there's also an octane edge.
Nazi gasoline averages no more than 87 and Japan's high octane supply is limited.

American superiority in quality and quantity of petroleum products was made possible by America's competitive business system. The endless effort to give you more for your dollar developed the enterprise and foresight which built a tremendous industry in peacetime—and converted it to war production without waiting to be told.

In tomorrow's Victory World, this same competitive system will serve you even better than before.

MUST HAVE WASTE PAPER
Waste paper collection in Pennsylvania's Victory Scrap Drive was given new emphasis today as reports received by the Advisory Committee on Salvage of the State Council of Defense showed a critical condition existing in the manufacture of paperboard for war uses due to a lack of waste paper at the mills.

The committee explained that an all-out collection of waste paper must be speeded up in every county of the State to keep mills having war contracts from closing. This present need for waste paper is caused by an increase in government orders for containers made of paperboard; by a cut in sulphite pulp imports and by a shortage of manpower in connection with pulpwood production.

The temporary drop in the demand for paperboard which occurred early this year has been replaced by a growing demand causing the stock piles of waste paper to decrease rapidly. An extreme shortage now exists which, unless relieved, may seriously affect the war effort.

Waste paper, the committee pointed out, is a basic resource from which are made millions of containers essential in supplying ammunition to the fighting front. Each shell is shipped in a paperboard container, carefully protected in transit. A ton of waste paper will produce 1,500 shell containers; or 47,000 boxes for 30-caliber ammunition; or 71,000 dust covers for airplane engines.

Practically everything the war program needs must be packaged. To keep the armed forces supplied with milk, army quartermasters need a million paper milk containers a day. Each time a pursuit airplane is built 20,000 sheets of protective paper is required.

About a third of the nation's waste paper is normally recovered in peacetime. Most of this comes from large industries, factories, department stores, hotels, public buildings, and apartments. About two-thirds of all paper is destroyed—going into furnaces, incinerators and rubbish heaps. It has been estimated that the average family can save a pound of waste paper a day.

Every newspaper, magazine and pamphlet should be salvaged, the committee stated. Wrapping paper, paper bags, corrugated paper, used carton, draft paper, old envelopes and clean waste paper basket paper is needed at once.

NOW THEY KNOW
One of those innumerable pieces of OPA literature brings the cheering news that even the government doesn't like to pay taxes—at least it doesn't like to be reminded of them.

OPA, in this release, is asking coal mines or dealers who deliver fuel to the government or its agencies to lump the federal transportation tax in with the rest of the bill.

By way of explanation, OPA says that "the government and its agencies object to making payment of the tax when it is stated separately."

Now they know how we feel.

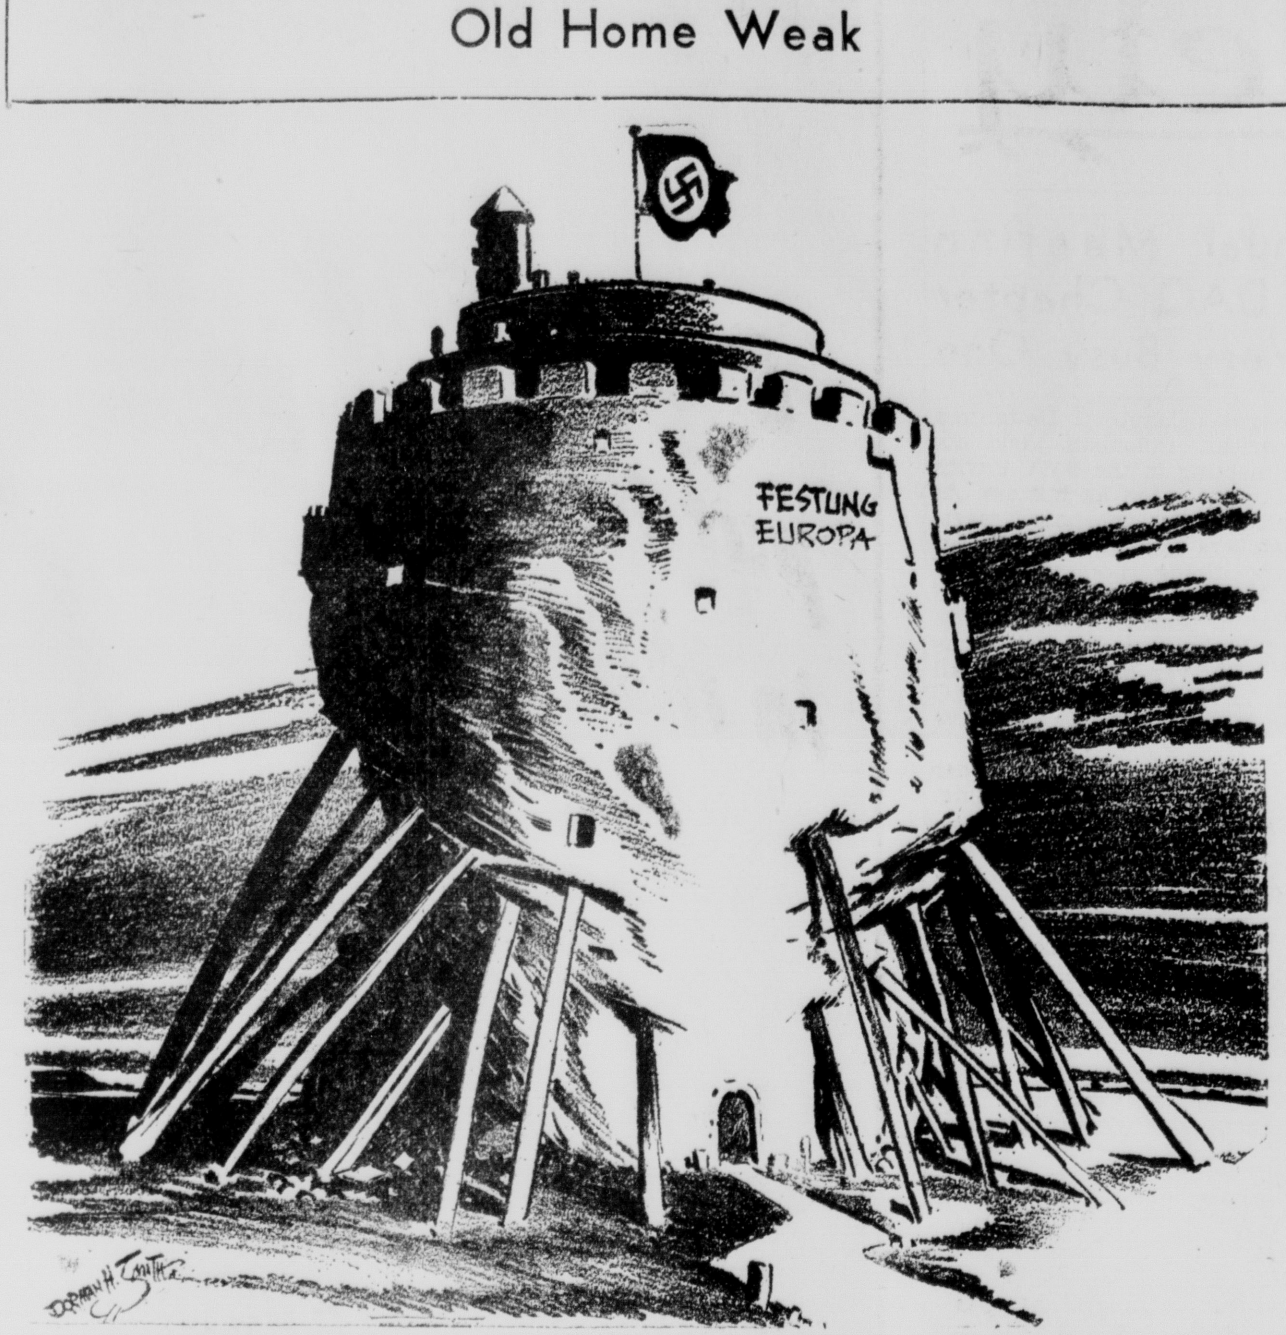

SWEET CHRISTMAS
Fruit cakes and Christmas candy should be a bit more abundant this year. Industrial users have been given another 10 per cent increase of sugar for the coming season. This brings their quota up from 80 per cent to 90 per cent of the 1941 quota, so there may still have to be some curbing of the sweet tooth. However, new sweets such as candy bars and "caramel chews," made out of sweet potatoes will help fill in.

It is our pleasure to join in the welcome being extended the Rev. Beecher Rutledge and his estimable family who have arrived in Warren and occupied the rectory of Trinity Memorial Episcopal church. The Rev. Rutledge will hold his first Sunday morning service here this weekend.

It is doubtful if this country ever experienced a quiet election than the one that closes with the balloting today. In case you haven't voted be reminded the polls close at eight o'clock.

Wet weather came along just in time to relieve the forest fire situation during the small game season.

VFW Auxiliary Is Continuing Work Of DAC Chapter Among Veterans Is Very Busy One

At the regular meeting of VFW Auxiliary, the hospital chairman, Garnet Stewart, gave her report on the monthly visitation to the Warren State Hospital. There are now 55 war veterans there. They were given stationery, stamps, food and clothing. The officials in charge told the committee that the patients looked forward each month to this visit, and the auxiliary decided to make its next trip November 13th, and the second Saturday of each month hereafter, holding a Christmas party for the patients at the Christmas visitation.

Mrs. Sadie Lucie was installed as trustee for the next 18 months, having been elected at the last most recent meeting.

The auxiliary decided, since the two November meetings fall on holidays, to hold no meeting November 11. Instead, it will entertain the post at dinner and a dance on that date, which is Armistice Day. The second meeting of the month coming on Thanksgiving, the date was set forward to November 23, and all members not present are asked to take note that the next regular meeting will be held on that date.

Attention of the auxiliary was called to a meeting of the North-western Counties Council at Franklin, November 7. Auxiliary delegates are to report to the men's meeting held there, where they will receive more definite information as to the location of the auxiliary meeting.

Annabel Pring was appointed chairman for the Armistice Day dinner which will be held on November 11 at 6:30. There will be a short program, and dancing afterward.

The auxiliary voted to give to the United War Fund, whose campaign was closing that evening, and the secretary telephoned the campaign chairman at the Y.W.C.A. to report the donation. This in spite of the fact that the organization was not solicited.

At the conclusion of the meeting, the president, Catherine Allen, presented to Garnet Stewart a gift on behalf of the auxiliary, in appreciation of her loyal work in the "Series of Games" event which is scheduled each Wednesday night to raise funds for use in sending mailings to all service men of Warren county.

Montgomery Is In No Hurry For Angott

BY TED MEIER
New York, Nov. 2.—(P)—Sammy Angott, who beat Slugger White last week for the NBA lightweight boxing title, may have to wait a long time before he gets a crack at Philadelphia Bob Montgomery, who holds the crown in New York and Pennsylvania.

"The shoe on the other foot now," explained Frankie Thomas, manager of Montgomery, after the Angott-White bout on the Pacific coast. "I would have been willing to fight White right away, but Angott can wait. When he held the title before did he give Bob a title bout? He did not."

In view of the fact that Angott holds three decisions over Montgomery in as many non-title scraps was it possible that Thomas had reason to fear a fourth match?

"No, no," said Thomas, chewing one of his favorite big cigars. "Angott beat the stuffing out of Bob at Madison Square Garden, but I think Bob won those other two. Do you remember the booting at Shiloh Park when Angott got a split decision in their last fight? The gamblers were laying 20 to 1 after the fight was over, but before the decision was announced, that Bob would get the nod."

Thomas doesn't fear Beau Jack whom Montgomery meets in a return title bout at Madison Square Garden Nov. 19. In their first meeting last May, Montgomery, a 13 to 5 underdog, won easily.

Few Players Taken From The Minors

Chicago, Nov. 2.—(P)—The minor league baseball orchards apparently grew a bumper crop of lemons in 1943.

Yesterday, at the annual draft meeting, Major league baseball representatives completed their business of taking the best of the minor league pickings in 20 minutes. They chose 15 players. The average number drafted in past years was 20.

Only 12 of the 16 big league clubs were represented at the meeting with Commissioner K. M. Landis and four of them—Cincinnati, Pittsburgh, Cleveland and the Chicago Cubs—did not file player claims.

The first selection in the draft was given to the New York Giants due to the absence of the Philadelphia Athletics. They chose Phil Weintraub, who is not a newcomer to the majors, having played with the Giants, Phillies and Cincinnati. His latest affiliation was with Toledo where he hit .334.

Other former big league players given new leases on their baseball life included Pitchers Ira Hutchinson, Al Epperly and Ewald Pyle; Infielder Eddie Mayo, and Outfielders Gil English and Edwin Carnett.

Chapter 13
BEFORE it was over, June eleven proved to be quite a day. But when Sally met Mary McDermott for lunch over at the National Art Gallery, she had no inkling of the events that would mark the day in red letters for her.

"What have you been doing to yourself? You have beautiful circles under your eyes today," Mary greeted her. "Have you been burning the midnight oil?"

"You can call it that," Sally found she could mention the incident quite casually and almost humorously, now that Stewart had made his peace with her. She was careful not to identify Stewart, but Mary was quite matter-of-fact about the whole thing.

She said, "You run into situations like that in any office, but it's probably magnified here because the War Commission is so gigantic--and because so many business men are leading screw lives. Their families are parked back in Buffalo or Denver or Oshkosh, and the men can't get home to see them very much. So all of a sudden perfectly upright family men find themselves living bachelor lives. Some one or other made a prediction the other day that the divorce rate in our fair city was going to soar. And it's nobody's fault but Hitler's. If I were the little woman back home in Kokomo, I'd hop right on a train and beat it for Washington, even if I had to live in a tent when I got here."

CONSIDERING Palmer Stewart a sociological question made the episode last night almost commonplace. Their talk turned to the dance at Fort Meade the following night.

"They'll all be enlisted men," Mary told her. "Take a look at their stripes and call them Corporal or Sergeant correctly, and you'll be a big hit."

Sally wondered who some of the others in the group might be. It was one way to meet some of her co-workers. She and Mary lingered over their lunch. The cafeteria was so subdued after the madhouse that was the War Commission restaurant that both of them felt refreshed. And the food was as reasonable as the other government-operated restaurants, and excellent as well.

As they went out the side door Sally looked a little wistfully at a family group coming in to see the paintings. There was so much to see in Washington, and so little time to see it. Sunday, instead of being a sightseeing day, had turned into the whole breathing space in the whole week when Sally could get her clothes washed and pressed, her stockings mended, her hair shampooed, her nails manicured.

Sally stayed at the office till six, transcribing a long and highly technical conversation Langhorne had had with Rubber Reserve. Part of her job was to listen in on all important phone conversations and record them. For an absent-minded man, Langhorne was pretty astute. Sally had decided he was absent-minded only about the unimportant things; he had a memory like an elephant when it came to up-to-the-minute statistics on the rubber situation, which to Sally never stayed the same two days running.

It was raining when she left the office, a hard summer shower that came down so suddenly the sun barely had time to hide under a cloud. The decorative umbrella she kept in the office didn't do much good. Below the skirt jacket Sally's new print dress was getting splashed.

SHE was standing on the safety aisle waiting for a chance to cross the busy intersection when the accident happened. A car, moving slowly enough down F Street, behind a street car, skidded suddenly. It slid, jerked as the driver tried to regain control, then splintered inexorably onto the safety aisle. Sally watched, stunned, as men and women ran from the approaching menace. The aisle was not raised above street level, and there was nothing to stop the auto, gone suddenly berserk. Nothing, until with a sickening flash, it rammed into the side of another car on the curb side of the street. Glass flew all over the safety aisle, raining down on the three pedestrians who had not been able to get out of the path of the car.

Before she realized what she was doing, Sally was running across the street to the scene of the accident. The victims lay across the safety aisle at grotesque angles, looking somehow not like real people now that they had been struck down. As Sally ran up, one of them a woman with gray hair, raised herself on her elbow dazedly. But the other two were motionless. Oblivious of the pouring rain and the crowd already gathering, Sally knelt down by the injured. Fragments of the Nurses' Aide course kept running like a chant through her head.

One man, a workman in blue denim, had what looked like a scalp wound. A thin trickle of blood ran down his lined face. But it might be concussion, Sally thought. He was unconscious. The other man, of middle-age, with thin features, was groaning. At first, Sally couldn't see where he was injured. Then, as she lifted his hand to feel his pulse, blood spurted suddenly from his wrist. For a second Sally watched the bright jet, hypnotized. Then she realized a piece of flying glass, a deadly segment from the accident car's windshield, must have severed the artery. Whatever else was wrong with the man could wait. The bleeding must be checked instantly.

QUICKLY Sally reached down and yanked on her slip, ripping off a jagged piece. She twisted it tightly till it was wound round like a rope. Then she looked up at the gaping crowd around her. "Has anyone a pen knife?" A man behind her unhooked his from his watch chain, and handed it to her.

With one rapid motion she slit the coat and shirt sleeves of the accident victim, and pulled her improvised tourniquet around his arm just above the elbow.

She tied a knot, then twisted the pen knife handle tightly in the knot. The result was so spectacular that the crowd gasped. Almost instantly the stream of blood subsided to a mere trickle, then stopped entirely. Sally breathed a sigh of relief. It had worked.

State Voters Troop to Polls

In Off-Year Election Which Attracts National Interest

(From Page One)

Elsewhere, Keystone voters chose mayors of 27 third class cities, and 45 county judges in 28 counties, while 10 communities voted on legalization of Sunday movies and three on Sunday sports.

A state-wide referendum was taken on a proposed amendment to the state constitution, empowering the legislature to set up a system of fixing election boundaries. They are fixed by county courts at present.

Pittsburgh, Nov. 2.—(P)—The voting was light today in western Pennsylvania with most interest in an off-year election centered in Allegheny and half a dozen other counties where leaders have been urging both Democrats and Republicans to "sweep in complete states and prepare for 1944."

Circulation of fake sample ballots designed to further split the Allegheny county Republicans caused some excitement yesterday and telegrams were dispatched by County Commissioner John S. Heron and Sheriff Robert J. Corbett telling district G. O. P. chairmen to "pay no attention" to sample ballots other than those sent from headquarters.

The fake sample ballots had suggested only one of the two Republican candidates for county commission, Corbett and Heron, be voted for.

Supporters of District Attorney Russell H. Adams, Republican incumbent, and State Senator John Fremont Cox, his Democratic opponent, carried their campaign fight right up to the finish line. The Republicans have a registration margin of about 77,000 to overcome in Allegheny county.

GRANGE NOTES

FARMINGTON MEETING

Mrs. W. G. Lyon, master, was in charge of the regular meeting of Farmington Grange, when a communication was read concerning senate

How many boys from WARREN won't come back?

NOBODY knows the exact number. Nobody. But—

The number who do come back—on their own two feet instead of in a flag-draped box—will be in exact proportion to the job we do here at home.

For every minute that we can help shorten the war will mean more lives saved. (213 Americans were killed in the final day of the last war, and 1,114 were wounded before the 11:00 o'clock Armistice took effect.)

Now one way all of us can help shorten the war is to tighten our belts and buy more War Bonds. Yes, still more. And . . .

If you think you're buying all the War Bonds you are able to, imagine—for a minute—that it's after the war . . .

. . . you're standing at the station . . . a bunch of home-town boys, still in uniform, climb off the train . . . one of them kisses his wife and grabs his kid in his arms . . .

. . . and then he turns to a young woman beside them, a girl who looks like his wife's sister, and you overhear him say . . .

"Catherine, I don't know how to tell you how sorry I am . . . it's such a shame about Joe . . . it makes me sick all over when I think how he'd be here today if the war had only ended a week sooner."

Think it over. Can't you buy a few more War Bonds to help end the war that week or month sooner? Sure, it may mean giving up something, but what's that compared to what they're giving up?

And remember, always—the money you "can't spare" may spare a soldier's life!

Russian Landing In Eastern Crimea Is Reported in Berlin

Moscow Advises Say That Fourth Ukrainian Army of General Feodor Tolbukhin Has Moved Beyond Captured Armyansk

ENEMY RETREAT IN THE SOUTH IS QUICKENING

London, Nov. 2.—(P)—The Germans asserted today that Russian forces had landed in the eastern Crimea north and south of Kerch. Moscow dispatches declared other Red troops were compressing the Nazis into the peninsular death trap with a fresh advance from the sealed northern entrance.

"The Germans immediately started a counter-attack which annihilated the main part of the Bolsheviks who had landed and compressed the remainder of a narrow space immediately near the coast," a DNB dispatch broadcast by Berlin said of the Kerch landings.

VITAL RIDGE OCCUPIED BY FIFTH ARMY

Two Lofty Anchors of Enemy Line in Italy Taken By Allies Battling Against Fierce Opposition

LA SPECIA IS BLASTED

By EDWARD KENNEDY

Allied Headquarters, Algiers, Nov. 2.—(P)—Allied Fifth Army troops battling against fierce enemy opposition have pushed forward to occupy large parts of the vital ridge and Matese Mountain, two lofty anchors of the German line in Italy, headquarters to announced.

The gains punched to within artillery range of the communications center of Venafro, and the Garigliano river 18 miles, above the Volturno river's mouth.

Along the Mediterranean coastal area, British elements on Mt. Gen Mark W. Clark's army advanced four miles, seizing the town of Casanova.

American troops farther inland won a good part of Matese, which dominates the upper Volturno valley.

The Eighth Army on the Adriatic side maintained steady pressure against the Germans, and gained some ground at the southern end of its front.

On the aerial front, Allied warplanes fanned out in a broad arc (Turn to Page Seven)

Prison Inmates On A Hunger Strike

Lewisburg, Nov. 2.—(P)—Tube feeding of five prisoners at the federal penitentiary continued today, with prison officials repeating that the inmates' hunger strike against mail inspection regulations could not last much longer.

The hunger strikers, all of whom were given prison sentences following their refusal to serve in the armed forces because of conscientious scruples, refused food as a protest against inspection of inmates' mail. The strike began a month ago.

Warden W. H. Hiatt said the five men are being fed through tubes in the prison hospital and "don't resist at all." He declined to discuss the case further or to name the strikers, but agreed with a justice department announcement in Washington which said the mail inspection rule would not be changed.

"Dream of Ages Nearer To Fruition" Secretary Hull States

Chungking, Nov. 2.—(P)—Foreign Secretaries Hull, Eden and Molotov "well may prove to be the instruments for bringing the dream of the ages nearer to fruition," Chinese Foreign Minister T. V. Song declared today in welcoming the Moscow four power declaration.

"China enthusiastically welcomes the joint declaration of the four principal united nations, which not only provides for common action during the war but also evinces their firm determination to insure collective security thereafter," Song's statement read.

Allied Headquarters, Algiers, Nov. 2.—(P)—The reaction of Russian troops which cleared the western Caucasus had stood on the Taman peninsula opposite the Crimea across the shallow Kerch Straits for several weeks. Russia's old fleet dominates the Black Sea into which the Crimea juts.

Moscow advised said the Fourth Ukrainian army of Gen. Feodor Tolbukhin had moved deep into the Crimea, beyond captured Armyansk against growing German counterattacks. All land exists from the peninsula, the "Florida of Russia," were cut off with the capture of Kerekop yesterday.

The men of Tolbukhin thrusting into the Crimea were aimed at Dzhankov, main railway junction of the Crimea, from which lines run south to Simferopol and Sebastopol, and east to Feodosia and Kerch.

Indicating quickening pace of the German retreat in South Russia, the Nazi communique said Hitler's troops were "avily engaged against 'advancing Russian speed formations'."

A Reuters dispatch said big groups of Germans were wandering aimlessly over the Taurida steppe in South Russia, giving themselves up to the Russians after being cut off from their units.

At midnight, the Russian communique announced the capture of 6,000 Germans at Perekop. The Reuters dispatch said the Germans were abandoning guns and every vestige of heavy equipment.

Facing one of their worst setbacks since the loss of Stalingrad, the Nazis' only hope of escape from the Crimea trap was by sea and air. Russian battlefront dispatches declared the Soviet Black Sea fleet and the Red Army air force were ready to meet that challenge.

Less than 50 miles to the north, other Soviet armies plunging westward in pursuit of demoralized German units reached the lower Dnieper river, 15 miles above the Kakhovka crossing. A Soviet communique said, Fresh Russian gains also were scored inside the Dnieper bend, where nearly 5,000 Germans were killed and immense caches of war material were captured or destroyed. Moscow declared. Strong Nazi counterattacks at Krivodi Rog were repulsed, the bulletin added.

MISSING BUTLER TOT FOUND SAFE AND WELL

Butler, Nov. 2.—(P)—Blond, blue-eyed Wayne Shoemaker, 3, was found safe and well a mile from his home today after being missing for 20 hours.

Soon after an employee at the American Rolling Mill scrapyard found the child sitting on the steps of a crane fire sirens were sounded to recall more than 1,200 volunteers searching for him.

The child was wet and cold, but otherwise apparently none the worse for his experience, police said.

most American soldiers in this theater to the Moscow announcement was shrugged shoulders.

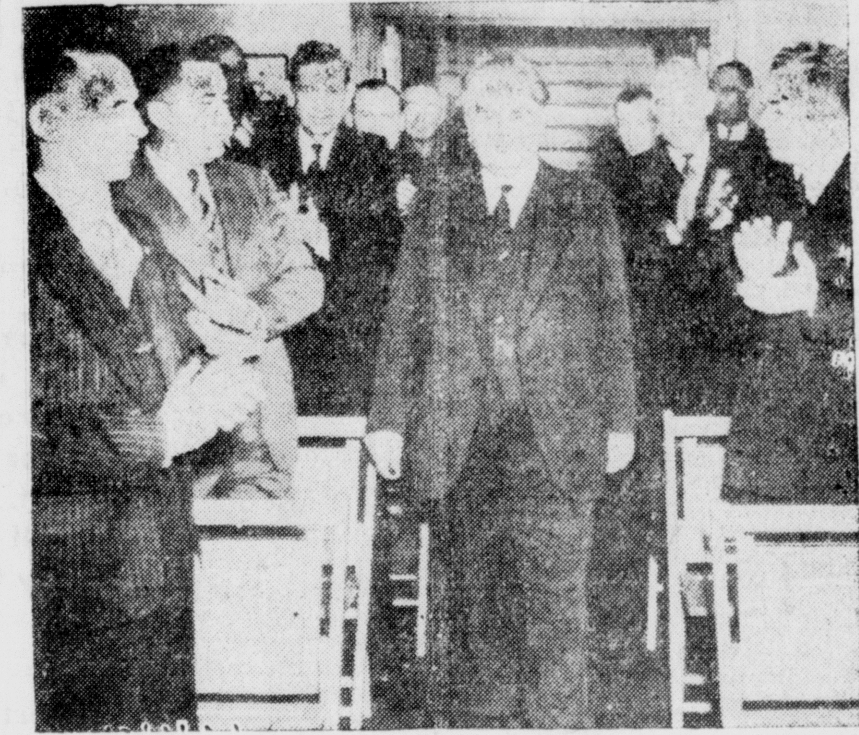

Preoccupied by immediate problems of daily army life, they are not much interested in international affairs.

Algiers, Nov. 2.—(P)—The Moscow four power announcements were greeted with mingled feelings of elation and disappointment by persons close to the French committee of National Liberation.

The French expressed dissatisfaction that they were not included on the commission which will settle general European problems. They were included only on the Mediterranean commission which is dealing with settlement of the Italian question.

Report of Moscow Agreement Believed Greatest Blow of German Hopes for Success

By JAMES D. WHITE

Washington, Nov. 2.—(P)—The sweeping Moscow agreement was viewed here today as the greatest single blow to German hopes of victory that the war has produced.

Unequivocal Allied unity—in war and after the war—now confronts a beleaguered Nazi regime which recently has placed all its chips on prolonging the conflict by dividing the Allies against themselves.

The reply from Moscow seems to be clear. There is no division, and it is the sense of the four-power conference that there shall be none.

Secretary of State Hull, Foreign Minister Anthony Eden and Foreign Commissar Vyacheslav Molotov, said the joint communique, had military experts along who discussed definite operations "already decided upon and now being prepared" to create a basis for the closest military cooperation in the future among Britain, Russia and the United States.

The announcement, made simultaneously in Moscow, London and Washington, apparently burst upon the Nazis before they could prepare ready-made propaganda counterblasts.

In a silence which appeared paralytic, the Nazi radio said nothing of the momentous Moscow decisions for several hours except to quote straight from British broadcasts.

While the conference is regarded as likely to hasten the end of the war by confronting the Germans with a wall of Allied unity and by stirring up rebellion against the Nazis all over Europe, the four-power joint declaration in which China joined is considered here to be the historic milestone for which the meeting will be remembered the longest.

The four powers, China, Russia, Britain and America, recognize the necessity of establishing at the earliest practicable date a general international organization, based on the principle of the sovereign equality of all peace loving states, and open to membership by all such states, large and small, for the maintenance of international peace and security.

Washington, Nov. 2.—(P)—Dates when four sets of brown stamps in war ration book three will become valid for purchasing meats, fats, oils and dairy products were announced by the Office of Price Administration (OPA) today, as follows:

Stamp L Nov. 21, M Nov. 28, N Dec. 5 and P Dec. 12. All expire Jan. 1.

Spokesmen for Local 234, Transport Workers Union, said no strike had been called and termed the situation "a lockout."

Buses and trolleys which did operate were jammed to capacity and hundreds of persons were left standing on street corners as the crowded vehicles whizzed by, unable to take on more riders.

More than one-third of the lines in West Philadelphia and about 40 per cent of the bus routes serving Bendix Aviation Corp., Budd Manufacturing Company, U. S. Signal Corps Depot and Midvale Steel Company in the northeast were affected when the trouble began.

Supervisors and instructors were assigned to the operating staffs, however, and the jam was slightly eased.

Four Navy Fliers Are Dead In Crash

Greensburg, Nov. 2.—(P)—The bodies of two of the four navy fliers who lost their lives in a plane crash 15 miles west of Greensburg Saturday were so badly burned it has been impossible so far to positively identify them, Capt. R. H. Collins, of the navy reported.

The ship was in charge of Lieut. Earl C. Calkins of Monroe, Iowa, and carried Marine Capt. E. J. Wood, Evanston, Ill., and Flying Cadets Robert A. Gurley, Bunker Hill, Ind., and Thomas Greene, Evansville, Wis.

INVASION TO CRUSH JAPAN IN SOLOMONS

Troops of Admiral Halsey Using Landing Barges, Occupy Garrison of Bougainville

AIRFIELDS ARE BOMBED

Allied Headquarters in the Southwest Pacific, Nov. 2.—(P)—The master stroke to crush Japan in all the Solomons, expose Rabaul to frontal assault and ultimately burst open the sea lanes to the Philippines was developed today by powerful American invasion forces of Bougainville.

Troops of Adm. William F. Halsey leaped from landing barges, Monday at dawn 45 miles up the west coast of that heavily garrisoned enemy base. Under naval and air cover, they captured Empress Augusta Bay against scant ground opposition and imperilled by-passed Japanese troops and air fields on the south side of that 3,400 square mile island.

Venturing nearer Rabaul than an Allied naval force ever had approached before, cruisers had moved to the extreme northern end of Bougainville and bombarded the Buka airfield prior to the invasion, a spokesman at Halsey's headquarters disclosed. Other naval forces escorting the landing troops shelled Empress Augusta for 45 minutes before the dawn operations.

Yet another task force shelled bivouac areas in the Shortlands while swarms of Allied bombers roamed on missions of destruction over Bougainville airfields.

The move completely fooled the Japanese army. The enemy's mauls, with scarcely any useable fields, was unable to interfere. The Japanese navy was defied by Gen. Douglas MacArthur to put in its appearance and risk disaster under the bomb-sights of "all my heavy bombers."

The Montenegro fighting centered around the town of Kolasin and the war bulletin said 250 German officers and men were slain here while huge caches of war material were captured.

The communique said Tito had received a telegram from Major Gen. Apostolski, chief of the Macedonian Liberals, pledging the determination of the Macedonians to fight for the Liberation of their country. Apostolski was an officer on the staff of the former Yugoslav army.

Tito's headquarters declared that the former Yugoslav General Ruppik, now listed as a Slovenian Quisling, was organizing a "White Guard" in Slovenia to aid the Germans in their campaign against the Yugoslav patriots. Ruppik, the communique asserted, has been charged with surrendering the plans of the Yugoslav general staff to the German high command.

PRISONER FURNISHES SKIN TO PATIENT

Philadelphia, Nov. 2.—(P)—Charles McCullough, 23, sentenced to 30 to 90 years for robbery, was the first donor selected from Eastern State Penitentiary's "skin bank," organization of which was announced last week by Dr. Herbert M. Goddard, president of the prison's board of trustees.

McCullough submitted to a skin grafting at Hahnemann Hospital yesterday, in efforts to save the life of 9-year-old Billy Gaugher of Sanitga, Pa., who was burned severely a few months ago. He was the second inmate of the penitentiary to give skin to the boy, Thomas Costello having submitted to a similar operation several weeks ago.

Food Subsidies Will Be Tested

Washington, Nov. 2.—(P)—President Roosevelt's appeal to congress for authority to pay food subsidies to keep retail prices down faces a major test in the senate this week.

The agriculture committee, whose membership has been predominantly hostile to the subsidy principle, arranged a hearing for Thursday to consider a bill which would knock out the present dairy feed subsidy to milk producers. It would require instead that the Office of Price Administration immediately boost milk prices 45 cents per hundred pounds, the equivalent of one cent a quart.

In addition, the bill would require the OPA within 90 days to fix milk prices on a regional basis at a level high enough to offset increased production costs. Senators Eastland (D-Miss) and McClellan (D-Ark) have said increases as high as three cents a quart would be needed in some sections.

State Voters Troop To Polls In Off-Year Election Which Attracts National Interest

Philadelphia, Nov. 2.—(P)—Light voting was reported in nearly all precincts in Pennsylvania today as the polls opened for the commonwealth's off-year general election, watched throughout the nation for possible hints of 1944 political trends.

Workers of both Democratic and Republican parties renewed their drives to get citizens to the ballot booths.

Except in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, however, local elections aroused little interest. The state's metropolis produced the outstanding fight—the mayoralty campaign between Acting Mayor Bernard Samuel, Republican, and former Ambassador William C. Bullitt, Democrat.

After a knock-down, drag-out battle, the two aspirants made their final appeals to the electorate last night in comparatively moderate language.

Bullitt, seeking to upset a Republican regime that has lasted 62 years old a radio audience, "we need in our city a spiritual conversion, a second flowering of the ideals which made our city great; a second flowering of the fellowship of Franklin, who walked with kings and artists and treated them alike. We need to make our science, machinery and trade, our labor with hand and brain, serve our city for the common good of all."

Samuel expressed confidence in a Republican victory. "I have felt that way all along, since the day I became a candidate for a full term as mayor," he said in a broadcast. "It was not the confidence of egotism but a humble confidence that the citizens of Philadelphia believe in the Lambertson-Samuel administration."

The Pittsburgh contest was highlighted by a Republican drive to win a majority of the Allegheny county commission, where the Democrats have had the edge for eight years. A great amount of ticket splitting was indicated.

Throughout the state, the size of the vote was expected to have a great deal to do with determining results. And with hundreds of thousands of young men away in the armed services, the women's vote loomed as another decisive factor.

There was only one state-wide contest—that for Judge of Superior Court, between Judge Claude T. Reno, who seeks a full 10-year term, and Judge Curtis Box, of Philadelphia common pleas court, Democrat.

Tax Framers Rounding Out Revenue Bill

Washington, Nov. 2.—(P)—Unprecedented controls over government spending caught the eye of congressional tax framers today as they continued their struggles to make ends meet in the treasury.

After chopping down the administration's request for new revenue from $10,500,000,000 to a tentative $2,153,000,000, the house ways and means committee today proposed a proposal by Rep. Disney (D-Okla.) that a congressional budget committee be created to act as watchdog on federal spending.

However, the proposal—which is supported by both Democrats and Republicans—probably will meet stiff opposition. Chairman Cannon (D-Mo.), of the house appropriations committee, said such a plan had been suggested many times and that it would be impractical.

In its almost-last-minute moves, the ways and means committee rounded out its new revenue bill with a boost in the out-of-town letter rate from three to four cents, raised the in-town rate from two to three cents and the airmail rate from six to eight cents.

NATION WAITS DECISION OF UNION CHIEFS

Two-Hundred-Man Policy Committee Meets Late Today To Formulate Plans

LEWIS STILL SILENT

Washington, Nov. 2.—(P)—For the second time this year, the government took over operation of the nation's strike-paralyzed coal mines today and the seizure put United Mine Workers' Union leadership in this position:

1—Order the strikers to dig coal again, immediately, or—

2—Sit tight and face the possibility of severe penalties under the war disputes act which outlines punishment for anyone who encourages a strike against a government-operated industry in wartime.

The UMW's 200-man policy committee meets late today to make its choice. A back-to-work order was considered highly possible.

UMW president John L. Lewis, by delaying action for one day on a coal walkout, when President Roosevelt ordered the seizing of the mines.

President Roosevelt said: "Because I appreciate the desire of the miners to work under a contract, I have authorized the Secretary of the Interior to enter into collective bargaining contracts with representatives of the miners to govern the terms and conditions of employment during the period of government operation. Such contracts will be made in accordance with the recent opinion of the National War Labor Board and will be subject to its approval in accordance with the provision of the War Labor Disputes Act."

This satisfied, at least in part, the demands of Secretary Ickes that the president allow him broader authority to deal with the miners than he had when he was mine boss last summer.

The operators recognize that any agreement worked out between Lewis and Ickes will be the agreement they will have to accept if they want their mines back during the war.

The president had warned he would take "decisive action to see that coal is mined" but agreed to wait until after the miners' policy meeting yesterday. When the policy committee deferred conclusive action the White House moved swiftly. The executive order and the president's statement were announced two hours and 15 minutes after the policy meeting ended.

The seizure placed in effect the penalties of the labor disputes act. These range up to a year's imprisonment and $5,000 fine for any person guilty of encouraging an interruption of production. An individual worker, however, has the right to remain away from work but he may not legally encourage or coerce anyone to join him.

Moreover, miners might be barred from accepting other jobs under tightening manpower controls.

Reaction in the field to the president's latest move was not encouraging. Both Pennsylvania and Ohio reported a determination among the miners to stay out until a contract is signed.

BULLETINS

Washington, Nov. 2.—(P)—Hit by a German bomb off Salerno, the light cruiser Savannah was damaged and some members of her crew were killed and wounded, the navy said today.

Chungking, Nov. 2.—(P)—Major Gen. Claire L. Chennault's far striking airmen again have gone to the support of Chinese forces, this time in central China, where they bombed a Japanese motor park and barracks at Shayang, a town on the Han river, 100 miles west of Hankow. Lt. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell's headquarters disclosed today.

Denver, Nov. 2.—(P)—Ignoring a blunt warning from Office of Price Administration officials, the Denver city council last night passed a two cents per quart excise tax on fluid milk—to give producers higher prices, and avert a threatened milk shortage.

Jacksonville, Nov. 2.—(P)—Major John T. Alsop today accepted a challenge by Mayor Harry P. Chan of Tacoma, Wash., and waged his pants that Jacksonville citizens can match the scrap drive record set by Tacoma citizens.

Campaign for $88,700 In War Fund Drive Is Still Mounting

While final audited statistics are not yet available for the successful Warren County War Fund campaign, complete reported figures are now on hand for all Divisions and for some sections of Divisions. WOMAN IN THE WAR

Ethel Brett, who works in a U. S. Navy Yard, agrees with the men in the Navy who have made Camel their favorite. "Camels have a grand flavor, and they don't get my throat," she says.

CAMELS GIVE ME JUST WHAT I WANT—A MILD SMOKE THAT ALWAYS TASTES FRESH AND DELIGHTFUL

CHECK CAMELS WITH YOUR "T-ZONE"

The "T-ZONE"—Taste and Throat—is the proving ground for cigarettes. Only your taste and throat can decide which cigarette tastes best to you. . . and how it affects your throat. Based on the experience of millions of smokers, we believe Camels will suit your "T-ZONE" to a "T." Prove it for yourself!

Council Grinds Grist In Record Time of 49 Minutes

Council met last evening, the gavel dropping at 7:40 after a quorum had finally been secured by the calling of various members by telephone and adjourned at 8:29. It was somewhat of a record as a full grist of business was transacted. In the absence of President Forest Waite, selection of Harold Hampson as president pro tem was made.

The finance committee reported $127,736.70 in the general fund; $30,938.34 in the sinking fund and $693.96 in the park fund. Bills amounting to $14,600.17 were ordered paid when properly approved.

The street committee reported that repairs to Fourth avenue by the New York Central and Pennsylvania railroads were being made as requested by the borough.

Eighty-nine calls were responded to by the police last month with 11,465 in stolen goods recovered. Twenty-five arrests were made with $59.25 in fines assessed. Burgess Steber reported collecting $12 in license fees. The parking meters returned the city the sum of $792.42 from September 29 to October 27, and for the same period in 1942 the sum of $975.22 was returned.

Sixteen fire calls with a loss of $109 was reported by the fire committee. The purchase of a new alarm system, to be installed in the station of Engine Company No. 3, was ordered at a cost of $225. New mattresses, springs, beds, etc., for the station were also ordered at a cost of not over $500.

Collections from the city scales amounted to $32.25 for past month. Harold Hampson and Mrs. M. L. Daugherty were chosen to represent the city at a convention of municipal officers to be held at the Penn Harris Hotel in Harrisburg, November 19 and 20.

Discussion of the police pension fund was indulged in, but no action was taken.

The sum of $4036.17 was ordered paid to the Firemen's Relief Association from the foreign fire insurance companies tax to the state.

Report was made that the equipment of the street department is in need of repairs and the sum of $200 was appropriated for that purpose.

RUMMAGE SALE

The Spinster Class of the First Presbyterian church will hold a rummage sale in the Beckley building Friday and Saturday of this week. Among the items are antiques, picture frames and other good bargains.

CHANGE IN HOURS

Patrons of Warren Public Library are advised that in the future a new Saturday schedule will keep the building open from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m., while for other weekdays will be from 10 a. m. to 9 p. m.

WILL LEAVE FRIDAY

Another group of selectees will leave Warren Friday for a reception center in the eastern part of the state. The group will be quite large and it is expected that many will be at the station to bid them farewell and God speed.

BOYS NOT IMPLICATED

Two of the boys whose names appeared in last evening's Times-Mirror in connection with police picking up several lads charged with soaping windows about town were not implicated in the affair in any way. They were Herman Ubeck and Danny Lord. Investigation by the police has wholly exonerated these two lads of any connection with the matter.

HAIL RATTLED DOWN

Warren had a hail storm of short duration last evening. It rattled down in good shape and west of the city the fall was heavy. Carl Patchen, weather prognosticator of de luxe, cites the old adage, "thunder in the fall no winter at all." And inasmuch as thunder accompanied the hail there is hope that Patchen may be correct.

PRIZES AWARDED

War Bond winners at the North Warren Civic Club annual fair, held last evening, were: John Flick; $100, R. F. Gilmore and Mrs. Frank Gerardi; $50, Lauren M. Mauer and William Lightner, Jr., of North Warren, and Jack Wilson, Mrs. H. R. Fisher, W. A. Aberle; $25, Lee Zelders and Max Schwanke. The cedar chest awarded during the carnival became the property of Miss Margaret Nesmith.

WILL WINTER FISH

Warren anglers who had planned on a program of trout planting in the county streams have been notified that due to the low water in the streams due to the prolonged drought no fish will be furnished this fall. The Corry hatchery has sent out word that they will winter the fish now at the hatchery and to the planting next spring. 175,000 brown and rainbow trout, all of legal size, will be held along with 300,000 smaller brown and rainbows throughout the winter.

CARS COLLIDED

At Fourth and Market streets last evening two automobiles crashed with damage of about $200 done to both cars. None of the occupants were injured. The crash came when Beecher Shaw, of Tidoute R. D. 1, pulled through the stop sign and his car was hit by one driven by Ralph C. Murray, Pama, Texas. Shaw was on his way to the court house when the accident happened and stated he thought he was on Liberty street where there is no stop sign. He assumed all liability for the accident.

AGENTS TO MEET

Thursday evening is the date set for the regular monthly meeting of the Purchasing Agents' Association of Northwestern Pennsylvania. This occasion should be of interest to all industrial plants and particularly to Purchasing Agents and Accountants. The principal speaker is Mr. Dundas Peacock, Controller, The Elliott Company, Jeannette, who has chosen the timely subject, "Contract Terminations and Cancellations." The meeting will be called to order at eight o'clock P. M. at the Carver House. Anyone wishing to attend this meeting may do so without any reservation. There is no admission.

AQUATICS COURSE

A new military aquatics course will be started by Red Cross instructors at the YMCA at eight o'clock Wednesday evening. Also of interest to many will be the junior and senior life saving courses to start at the same place at eight o'clock Friday night. Those in charge have been surprised and somewhat disappointed in the lack of interest in military swimming, despite the fact that some recent statistics released by the War Department indicate that in the first year of this war almost half of the fatalities were caused by drowning.

WILL MOVE SOON

With practically all construction of the new fire station in the Fourth ward completed, firemen of Engine Company No. 3 are preparing to move into the station about November 15. The structure has been built by the city and the entire cost, including a number of changes, all for the better, will be less than the lowest bid received from any contractor. Considerable new furniture will be installed in the station and it should be one of the most comfortable and well arranged stations in the city. At the present time there is some discussion relative to the erection of a similar station on the East Side near Irvine street. However, this will probably not be done until after the war.

Emery, and these three leaders are now busy at the task of lining up a total of twelve company commanders. Thursday of this week at 5 o'clock are the day and hour set for the first meeting of campaign officers.

BOMBERS AREN'T CAMELS

It's a long time between drinks for the camel. But a heavy bomber plane constantly gulps gasoline—200 gallons an hour at cruising speed.

And it's partly because of the bomber's thirst that the photograph shows U. S. gasoline for U. S. forces moving down a road in India by truck and camel. Petroleum is so important to our armies that every kind of conveyance is used to get it to them.

Two-thirds of the tonnage consumed by our expeditionary forces is petroleum.

The bomber is just one of many, many reasons for that huge consumption. Yet the gasoline it uses in 60 minutes is as much as the average motorist used in five months before the war.

Too, it's 100-octane gasoline the U. S.

petroleum industry is supplying to United Nations air forces in record quantity. Credit for steadily driving Germans and Japs from the skies goes first to our crews, second to our planes. But there's also an octane edge. Nazi gasoline averages no more than 87 and Japan's high octane supply is limited.

American superiority in quality and quantity of petroleum products was made possible by America's competitive business system. The endless effort to give you more foresight which built a tremendous industry in peacetime—and converted it to war production without waiting to be told.

In tomorrow's Victory World, this same competitive system will serve you even better than before.

Saturday the district quarterly meeting service opens with a Woman's Missionary Society business meeting at 9:30 a. m. Quarterly conference sessions will continue through the day. Saturday evening will be public service in charge of the Young People's Missionary Society, with the Rev. G. H. Wood, of Youngsville, the speaker.

Sunday services will open with a love feast at 9 a. m., followed by Sunday school at 10:45, with Rev. J. C. Long, evangelist, who is to conduct three weeks of service in Youngsville, from Nov. 7th to 28th, as preacher. Communion service at 12 noon.

Mrs. Castburg, returned missionary from India, will be the main speaker at a public missionary meeting at 2:30 p. m. Sunday and in the evening there will be a praise and song service.

It is expected that among the ministers here and their wives will be a number of former pastors and wives of the local Free Methodist church. Many visitors are expected.
